

R. W. McGOWAN, Proprietor.

Turner's Hotel, Ulverstone.

18 September 1904

My own dear Andrew.

I am sending you Wendell's letter which I got last night. I am keeping very well - unfortunately it poured all day yesterday & to-day is very bad. I hope it will be better to-morrow. Given Emma & Noddy my dearest love, I got Emma's letter last night I will try & write her a line to-morrow. I am thinking of you in court to-day. I hope the journey did not tire you too much.

With much love

I am

Your loving Grace.